

Dear English,

Happy Spring!

With all this rain, a burst of spring flowers can't be far away.

Spring is a time of renewal and we are looking forward to welcoming new people to English at Large!

We are pleased to welcome 3 new members to our volunteer Board of Directors! Our Board sets the strategic direction of the organization, and members contribute to projects that help support current programs and future growth.

We are hiring! Do you know someone who is highly organized, people and tech savvy, and is passionate about the mission of English At Large? Or is this you? We are looking for our next Programs & Database Manager!

A special opportunity for local college students: We are currently recruiting for our Summer Internship Program!

Finally, we are looking forward to this year's Tutoring Learner Graduation. This event celebrates everything our learners have achieved with the help and support of their volunteer tutors. Sponsorship opportunities are available - and your support will help us produce a wonderful celebration for our learners, tutors and their families!

Read on to learn more!

The weather may be wet and dreary, but brighter days are sure to follow. Your support makes the world brighter for all of us at English At Large.

Thank you for your continued interest and support!

Best regards,
Maureen
